Notes

1 As a parent or godparent you should ask yourself:

- Are you prepared to the best of your ability to give the child a Christian upbringing within the family of Christ's Church?
- Will you help the child by being regular in public worship and private prayer, not only by your teaching but also by your example and your prayers?
- Will you encourage the child in due time to come to Confirmation and Communion?

Parents may be godparents to their own children, provided that the child has at least one other godparent.

Godparents should be baptized and confirmed, but the requirement of confirmation may be relaxed in certain cases.

A child should be baptized at his parish church or the church his parents normally attend. This requirement may be relaxed in certain cases.
